

A Newcomers Guide to RCC

Spiritual Growth/Fellowship Opportunities

Small Groups – We currently have four homes that hold regular bible studies, which focus on diving into Gods Word and engaging one another. These are a relaxed “safe place” to ask questions and to bounce ideas off others. Point of Contact – Glema Jennings, Lonnie or Becky Moran, Tom Lewis, Adam, or Ali Hamilton.

RCC VBS – Our biggest youth event of the year, the last week in June every year. The facility comes alive with Gods Word each summer, and many seeds are planted in the hearts of our community children. Point of Contact – Jaycee Lawernce.

Men’s Breakfast – The first Saturday of every month, we meet for tasty food, and engaging Bible Study. Point of Contact – Phil White, Drue Lane.

Ladies Aid – Our Ladies Aid Group meets monthly for prayer, fellowship, devotions, and to help and plan benevolence activities in the church. Point of Contact – Emily Jones.

Seniors Bible Study – The second Friday of each month, this is a special time in Gods Word for our seniors. Point of Contact – Drue Lane.

The Golden Girls – The second Wednesday of each month, our senior ladies meet to visit a local eatery with prayer and fellowship. Point of Contact – Lucille Gelter, Drue Lane, Ruth Henderson.

Christ In Youth – A weeklong trip each year for five days of worship and learning (Grades 7-12) Point of Contact – Emma Wachter, Drue Lane.

Junior Church – Our weekly time of Bible learning for our young children. Point of Contact – Jaycee Lawrence.

Summer Camp – RCC has all summer long opportunities for our young people to attend either Butler Springs in Hillsboro or Woodland Lakes in Amelia for fun and learning. Point of Contact --- Drue Lane, Emily Jones.
